++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Turning windier as rain approaches from the west.

This Evening and Tonight:
An area of rain will soon move into the country from the west, bringing heavy downpours over higher ground. Winds will increase through the night with a risk of gales along coasts. Feeling milder than the previous night. Minimum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Sunday:
Cloudy and wet with outbreaks of light rain and drizzle. This will persist in the north, but will ease later in the south. Mild, but windy with coastal gales. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Cloud and drizzle clearing on Monday, giving way to brighter weather. Breezy at times but easing later. Sunny spells on Tuesday and Wednesday and becoming very warm, especially inland.
